

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, October 4, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Damage moderate as Lili weakens before landfall

'It looks like we were lucky'

MSU storm chasers get windy lessons

Minority recruit efforts at risk

Social worker applications low

$5.2M award in suit rejected

Negotiators optimistic on tort reform

Burgin, ex-lawmaker who was convicted, dies at 78

$26M wastewater loan OK'd

Seaport lockout slows Nissan

Jobless claims up, Labor Dept. says

Editorials

Human Services: Spirit of cooperation sorely needed

Lead paint: Mississippi law should be changed

Look to awards to settle tort reform

Special session 'blew' valuable dollars

Tort reform must limit 'extremist' payments to attorneys

Paying legislators to do zilch wrong

Make legislators wear 'Scarlet M'

Tort reform choice in November's vote

Legislators must pass tort reform

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Storm's weakening saved Louisiana

West end takes the worst hit

Flood devastates some in Hancock County

Casinos get plenty of practice closing, reopening

Getting federal aid, part 2

DHS officials say funding concerns hurting employment efforts

Companies seek deals with Cuba

Jobless claims rise

Ethics panel asks Kentucky governor for records

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Weakened Lili packs punch

Negotiations appear more optimistic; no agreement yet

Musgrove: Two sides not that far apart on medical malpractice

Letter to the Editor

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Hurricane whips up business for Tunica

Lili leaves Louisiana; relieved residents still must contend with widespread damage, power outages

Hattiesburg American

Meridian Star

Louisiana residents weather storm in hotels

Oliver: FGH cuts resulted from many problems

Candidate wants fair legal system

State's jobless rate falls in August

Take steps to prepare for storms

President approves disaster relief funds for eight Mississippi counties

Laurel Leader-Call

Doctors pitch malpractice concerns again

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

The Clarksdale Press Register

Prah! slaying makes good case for death penalty

Past Bar Association leaders back longer judge terms

Daily Times Leader West Point

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Delta still needs to stay on toes, Buckley warns

Debit card to replace food stamps

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Governor tells pols to put people first

DEQ spreads message about better water

Enterprise Journal McComb

Heavy rains pelt SW Mississippi

Editorials for Friday, October 4, 2002

Charlie Mitchell: Better to learn from the past than to ignore it

The Natchez Democrat

Read Our View

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Hurricane Lili damage minimal

Some areas of Mississippi faced tornadoes, flooding

Doctors air malpractice concerns again

Right idea on prisons, just wrong target

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

The Picayune Item

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

The Daily Star Grenada

Grenada consultant to head MMA

Senate: stay the course

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Stateline.org

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times

Other

Good neighbors